EVENT GUIDE

WELCOME

MANCHESTER Home Show

The Manchester Home Show is the sister event to the long-running London Home Show, which has welcomed more than 87,000 budding buyers since 2013. Hosted by the country's leading property portal dedicated to affordable homeownership and buying schemes, Share to Buy, this exhibition was created to bring aspiring homeowners face-to-face with the North West's biggest providers of the homes and services designed for them – no matter what stage they're at on their journey.

Over a decade of helping buyers

With the property landscape across the UK having changed significantly in recent years, presenting many challenges for prospective owners, it has never been more important for budding buyers to understand the housing options available to them.

While the country's housing crisis has led to a generation of aspiring homeowners feeling priced out of the property market, housing schemes have already helped thousands onto the property ladder and could be the best option for you too.

Today, 20 exhibitors are on hand to talk to you about hundreds of properties available across Manchester and the North West, including homes available through Shared Ownership, Rent to Buy and other innovative schemes, as well as experts from the financial and legal sectors.

We're also hosting various live talks and expert sessions throughout the day to ensure you can find out all you need to know about the buying process under one roof.

A word from today's hosts

At Share to Buy, we're passionate about helping hopeful homeowners learn more about the buying options available to them – and connect with the people who can help make it happen.

Our website – sharetobuy.com – remains the country's leading property portal for affordable homeownership, offering everything from property listings and housing guides to budget calculators and expert advice. Whether you're just starting your search or ready to make your move, we're here to support you every step of the way.

But we also know that buying a home isn't just about browsing online – it's about asking questions, meeting experts and feeling confident in your decisions.

That's why we launched Share to Buy Live: our new events platform designed to bring home-buying support to life, both online and in person. Events like the Manchester Home Show can offer guidance and clarity for budding buyers, bringing them together with the providers who are trying to help them onto the property ladder.

“ We would like to thank you for joining us today, and we're excited to help you find your space! **”

Where journeys to homeownership begin

From curious to confident: Hear from the people who have been where you are.

I think it's quite daunting to be able to buy a house, so it's good that all the information's in one place, really, to get onto the ladder and just become more knowledgeable about it, really.

I think the talks on offer as well were super, super helpful. It's possible to own your own home and it's probably a lot more possible than you think.

It breaks down the process a lot easier than a bunch of Google tabs would do.
